Dear Sir,

RE: Court case involving Barry James Billing

I refer to your letter and attached correspondence which you have requesting be brought to the attention of the Magistrate handling the matter of Barry James Billing.

I advise that the court case was finalised on 13/10/11 and your documents have been forwarded to the Magistrate for their information only. The Magistrate is not in a position to review the case.

If it is the case that you believe criminal charges should be brought against other parties you should contact the NSW Police. I note that the officer in charge handling this case was Det Matthew Clarke of Dee Why Police Station.

Should you have any further enquiries regarding this matter please contact this office.

Yours faithfully,

R. Clifton
Acting Registrar
